

ANKARA BİLİM UNIVERSITY

ENG 201 & ENG 202 EXEMPTION EXAM
(ENGLISH MEDIUM DEPARTMENTS)

SAMPLE EXAM

This document contains sample questions only. It illustrates the format, question types, and the level of the actual ENG 201 & ENG 202 Exemption Exam and does not contain any question from the real exam.

Bu belge yalnızca örnek sorulardan oluşmaktadır. Gerçek sınavda kullanılan sorulardan hiçbirini içermez; yalnızca sınavın formatını, soru tiplerini ve sınavın seviyesini göstermek amacıyla hazırlanmıştır.

Instructions: Choose the single best answer for each question. This sample includes 7 questions covering all the skill areas measured in the actual exam: Listening, Speaking, and Vocabulary.

PART 1 — LISTENING

Note: In the real exam, these questions are based on an audio recording played during the test.

LISTENING SKILL

1. Listen to the excerpt and choose the correct inference.

CLICK HERE TO OPEN THE AUDIO FILE.

- a) The speaker appreciates Elena's thoroughness and teamwork.
- b) The speaker feels somewhat frustrated by Elena's behavior.

LISTENING FOR MAIN IDEAS

2. Listen to the excerpt and choose the main idea of the speech.

CLICK HERE TO OPEN THE AUDIO FILE.

- a) Three innovative technologies that are transforming modern life while addressing environmental and transportation-related challenges.
- b) The increasing replacement of traditional farming, industrial, and transportation methods with fully automated technological systems.
- c) The environmental problems caused by conventional technologies and the difficulties involved in developing sustainable alternatives.

PART 2 — SPEAKING SKILL

Read the statements and choose the correct option.

3. Which phrase would best signal that you are about to summarize the key point of your argument?

- a) For instance,
- b) In addition,
- c) To sum up,
- d) Moving on,

4. Which sentence best acknowledges another speaker's opinion before offering a different perspective?

- a) I understand your perspective, though I'd like to offer a slightly different view.
- b) You're completely wrong about that.
- c) I don't want to talk about this anymore.
- d) That doesn't matter at all.

5. Which sentence would be the most effective opening for a presentation on the topic of workplace burnout?

- a) Workplace burnout is an important subject that affects millions of employees worldwide.
- b) Imagine finishing your workday feeling as though you have nothing left to give.
- c) Burnout can have many causes depending on the individual and their profession.
- d) Today, I will talk about the causes and effects of workplace burnout.

PART 3 — VOCABULARY

Choose the word that best completes each sentence.

6. Even after reviewing extensive data from multiple independent sources, some scientists remain _____ about the long-term effects of the new treatment, insisting that further clinical trials are necessary.

- | | |
|----------------|--------------|
| a) indifferent | c) skeptical |
| b) optimistic | d) confident |

7. The novelist's latest work explores the _____ nature of memory, showing how the same event can be recalled in strikingly different ways by different people.

- | | |
|---------------|---------------|
| a) irrelevant | c) linear |
| b) permanent | d) subjective |

— END OF SAMPLE EXAM —

ANSWER KEY

Questions	Correct Answers
1	b — The speaker feels somewhat frustrated by Elena's behavior.
2	a — Three innovative technologies that are transforming modern life while addressing environmental and transportation-related challenges.
3	c — To sum up,
4	a — I understand your perspective, though I'd like to offer a slightly different view.
5	b — Imagine finishing your workday feeling as though you have nothing left to give.
6	c — skeptical
7	d — subjective